Rice is well known around the world but information about Medicinal Rice is limited to the natives of few regions. In Indian state Chhattisgarh, natives specially Traditional Healers have in depth knowledge about different Medicinal Rice. If you search the reference literatures, you will find maximum references from Chhattisgarh. I am documenting traditional knowledge about Medicinal Rice from over a decade. Although part of this knowledge is online through hundreds of research articles in internet but in order to present this knowledge in compiled form, I am preparing detailed report titled 'Medicinal Rice in Traditional Healing in Indian state Chhattisgarh.' Current size of this report is plus 50 GB.

I have written few knols on Medicinal Rice. You can visit to these links for details.
